DOUBLE TRACK IS NOW COMPLETE

Southern Railway Co., Has Line in Operation Between Washington and Atlanta

WORK STARTED IN 1902

Electric Automatic Block Signals Also Installed— Construction Done Under Supervision of Maj. Wells.

Double track is now in service on the entire line of the Southern Railroad between Washington and Atlanta. The section between mile post 439 and 442 near Thicketty, S. C., the last of which track laying was completed, having just been cut in.

This gives the Southern a double track highway built to modern standards with favorable grades and curvature and all streams spanned by most substantial structures of concrete and steel. While grading and track laying are thus brought to a close, a large amount of work in laying ballast and surfacing will have to be done before the newer parts of the line are put in the same shape as those sections which have been in service for several years.

The installation of electric automatic block signals for the entire distance between Washington and Atlanta will also be complete when the construction now under way between Charlotte and Spartanburg is finished.

Double track work on the Southern was started in 1902, when construction was begun on the 79 miles between Alexandria and Orange, Va. The build ng of the entire line has been done under the direct supervision of Maj V. H. Wells, formerly chief engineer nd now consulting engineer of construction for the Southern Railroad nes.

FORCES MINISTER OUT

he Rev. W. C. Bowden Decides to Take up School Teachng

Georgetown Del. Sept. 11.—Six oths' tria lon a salary of $50 per onth has proven conclusively to e Rev. W. C. Bowden, pastor of e Georgetown Methodist Protes nt circuit, that a minister cannot ttle against the high cost of livi g without more money, so he has linquished his post and gone to Williamsville, N. C., where he has ccepted the principaship of a school ith his wife as his assistant.

Two years ago Mr. Bowden en red the Maryland Annual Confer ce on trial and was given a small arge in Maryland, where he re ained for one year. He found it rd to make both ends meet. His ing expenses, however, were re ced, for instead of coming up with e salary alloted for each of the urches the members in many in ances loaded their wagons with oduce and carried it to the parson e. He was transfered at the ses on of the confeence in April to the al circuit, where he found that actically the same condition pre iled.

Left without a minister, the rural urches of the Georgetown circuit ll either have to do without one til the next session of the confer ce or throw out such inducements at some minister will accept the ll.

TARS AND FEATHERS RIVAL

Army Officer Pleads Unwritten Law For Attack on Naval Student

London, Sept. 11.—"The unwritten law" was invoked yesterday when Lieut. Thomas Wright was arraigned before a court-martial at Cambridge, charged with tarring and feathering a young naval student, Desmond Kinahan, for his attentions to Mrs. Wright while the husband was in far-off Saloniki making a war record for himself.

It was declared that Wright, single handed, strapped the naval student to a chair and then poured liquid tar and feathers over him. Mrs. Wright, young and beautiful, was a member of the women's royal air force.

After the incident, which took place in May, Wright issued a statement defending his novel application of the "unwritten law," instead of taking the matter into the civil courts. He exonerated his wife from all : me.

JAPS LOOK TO AMERICA

Proposed Moves Indicate Diplomatic Concentration on United States

It is expected that Masno Hanihara, Japanese Consul General at San Francisco, will be promoted to succeed Vice Foreign Minister Kijuro Shidehara, whose appointment as Ambassador to the United States may be officialy announced soon.

In the Japanese press the opinion is expressed that the designation of M. Shidehara as Ambassador and the promotion of M. Hanihara, who was trained in America, indicated Japanese diplomatic concentration on relations with America ,which now replaces England as an object of attention. The belief is growing that America will assume a more prominent role in the affairs of Asia and that there is a necessity for pomoting friendly relation with that country.

SANTO DOMINGO

Spain Asks U. S. To End Military Occupation There

Madrid, Sept. 11.—The Spanish Government has transmitted to Washington a letter from the heads of all the Parliamentary parties suggesting that the United States now has an opportunity to terminate the military occupation of Santo Domingo.

Washington, Sept. 11.—United States marines were ordered to Santo Domingo on November 25, 1914, because there was a threat of revolution there, A treaty was negotiated between the United States and Santo Domingo early in 1917 by which this country asumed a virtual protectorate over Santo Domingo. Santo Domingo's claims were presented before individual delegations to the Peace Conference in Paris, but the country was not included in the list making up the League of Nations.

DEATH OF MISS BROADUS

RIOTOUS SCENES CONVULSE BOSTON

Five Men Shot by State Cavalrymen Last Night

TROOPS GUARD CITY

Four Regiments of Soldiers Now on Guard—Sympathetic Strike of Carmen and Others Imminent.

Boston, Sept. 11.—With more than 6,700 troops of the State guard patrolling the principal streets today, Boston was virtually an armed camp on the second day of the police strike.

The city was quiet early today, following a night in which two looters were shot to death by the guardsmen and more than a score, including four girls, wounded.

Rain, which fell intermittently throughout the night, failed to keep the crowds indoors, and riots in which thousands of men and boys clashed with the military, hurling stones and using clubs, were frequent

There were no indications of an early settlement of the strike today.

Boston, Sept. 11.—Five men were shot by State cavalrymen in the rioting last night.

A newspaperman, whose identity has not been fixed, is reported to have been shot dead, in Scollay Square.

The entire city late last night was under guard of troops.

Troops in South Boston fired a volley into a mob, wounding four.

The first clash between the riotous mobs, in whose hands the city has been since the police struck Monday night, occurred last night.

The first troop of cavalry rode into and despersed a mob of several hundred in Scollay Square, Thoroughout the day this had been the most lawless section.

Scores of battles between volunteer police and gangs had been fought with the volunteers on the losing end as a rule.

The cavalrymen carried sabres and side arms and rode into the crowds in a manner that was convincing. They did not have to use their blades and, aside from rioters who were knocked down and bruised, no casualties were reported.

Last night the city was under martial law, four regiments of the State Guard having been called out by Gov. Coolidge at the request of Mayor Peters, who assumed full charge of the police department when he saw the situation was beyond the control of Commissioner Curtis.

Riots were taking place up to a late hour.

A sympathetic strike of carmen telephone workers and electrical workers is threatened. The Central Labor Union has called a meeting for tonight. Action will be taken at that time.

The city was completely at the mercy of the lawless element yesterday. It is estimated that 125 crap games were in progress on Boston Common and principal streets nearby for the greater part of the afternoon.

CITED FOR CONTEMPT

Union Leader in St. Louis and 12 Strikers Violated Court Order

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 11.—Max Zaritsky of New York, international president of the United Cloth Cap and Hatmakers' Union, has been cited for contempt by Federal Judge Trieber in the United States District Court here.

Zaritsky, with 12 striking capmakers, is charged with violating a temporary injunction restraining the strikers from interfering with employees of seven local hat factories where a strike is in effect.

The citations are returnable on October 3.

HANDS-OFF POLICY

No Further Interference with Washington Policemen

President Wilson took steps last night to prevent further interference by Louis Brownlow, District Commissioner, with the policemen in their movement to form a union.

In a telegram to Brownlow, the Pesident asks that no action be taken on the police situation in Washington until after the industrial conference here October 5.

The President's order to Brownlow to take a "hands off" attitude will be of the greatest encouragemet to the men.

It was expected that the President would take some action before Brownlow enforced his ultimatum to discharge any man joining the union.

"The Commissioners will postpone all action until after the industria conference in October," he said.

JUDGE CHICHESTER DESIGNATE

Will Be Here Tomorrow and Fix Date For Oehlert Trial

Governor Westmoreland Davis has appointed Judge R. H. L. Chicheste: of Fredericksburg to try the case of the commonwealth against William H Oehlert which is set for trial Monday September 15.

Judge Chichester will open court tomorrow and arrange the preliminaries and also arrange for the summoning of a jury.

It is regarded as likely that the trial will be postponed until September 22

Oehlert is charged with shooting and killing Linwood Kidwell which occurred November 12, 1919. This will be the third trial of the accused.

ITEMS FROM ORKNEY SPRINGS

Colony of Alexandrians Spent Summer at This Resort

Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Wallis, of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, returned to their home from Orkney Springs yesterday evening after spending nearly a month at that place.

Mrs. Hubert Snowden and her daughters, Elizabeth and Miss Edith, also returned from their summer outing at Orkney Springs, yesterday evening to their home on South Washington street.

A large number of visitors have been at Orkney Springs this season, both at the Hotel and Mrs. Kimball's cottage. Miss Constance Bousb of this city, has occupied her cottage all the summer, and has had an attractive party of young ladies under her chaperonage entertained by Miss Collins Jones. Miss Jones with a number of her party left the springs yesterday evening. Miss Jones expects to go with her father on a trip to Colorado tomorrow night.

The Orkney Springs Hotel recently has been sold by Mr. Carter, its late proprietor to a syndicate among the number being Mr. Long of Harrisonburg, Va. They expect to spend a large sum for improvements, among these being an electric plant for lighting the hotel grounds. They expect to have it ready for a great number of guests next summer.

SECOND WEEK OF THE CAMPAIGN

WAVES TO THE CROWD

Traverses Miles of Lonely Land in His Invasion of the Country of Senator Borah.

Billings, Mont., Sept. 11.—President Wilson today opened the second week of his nation-wide campaign for ratification of the peace treaty and the league of nations. He speaks today at Billings and Helena.

Wilson was much refreshed as a result of taking a long rest yesterday when he spoke but once, at Bismarck, and said a few words to a 'rear platform crowd" at Mandan.

He waved to crowds at the few towns through which his train passed slowly, and, it was understood, devoted some time to plans for the industrial conference which will meet next month in Washington.

The Presidential special traversed miles of lonely land, treesless and with little indication of human habitation. Wilson rode part of the time on the observation platform, giving a flourishing of his hand to an occasional motorist or rancher who had a fleeting glimpse of him.

After the speech at Billings, he was to start at once for Helena, arriving there at 7.30 this evening. In Montana he was in Democratic territory, but tonight he crosses the line into Idaho, the stronghold of Senator Borah. implacable foe of the treaty

RETAIL MERCHANTS

Will Close at Noon Wednesday for Parade in Washington. Other Business Disposed of

The regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants Bureau of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce was held last night. Considerable business of a routine nature was dispatched.

A general discussion of the Siegel Bill was held and correspondence of this Bureau with members of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce was read.

A report was made on the closing of stores by the Retail Merchants of this City on each Wednesday afternoon through the month of July and August, that about one hundred and fifteen (115) merchants observed this half day holiday and it was a general feeling that this holiday should be given through the months of June, July and August next year.

Report was also made of success at ending the "Dollar Day" sales.

A general discussion was held regarding the placing of seats along Washington Street to accommodate the many strangers and men of our city, who on account of the absence of parks, have no place to go after work hours.

Matter of closing stores for a half day on Wednesday, September 17th on the occasion of the great parade in Washington in honor of the homecoming of General Pershing, was generally discussed and it was decided that merchants in this city be requested to close their stores from twelve noon for the balance of the day on that date in order that employees could see the parade if they desired.

TELEGRAPHERS SAVE PARIS

Dealers' Trick to Block Low Prices Frustrated by Wire Men

Vigilant telegraph operators in the central office saved Paris from a possible famine during the recent food crisis precipitated by the profiteers.

Following disorders around the central markets, where consumers raided the stands and overthrew them, scattering vegetables, fruit fish and other food to the ground because of the high prices, a number of commission merchants sent urgent telegrams to producers outside of Paris telling them to hold back their goods till further orders. Many of the dispatches indicated that, owing to a general decline in prices, the merchants were withholding their goods from the market.

The telegrams numbered about one thousand. They had gone past the wickets into the operating rooms when the operator who was working one of the wires to Brittany noted a batch of them canceling orders for butter. Now he had paid ter franc for a pound of butter that morning. He consulted with colleagues operating wires leading to fish vegetable, fruit and other centres and their tables were loaded down with similar telegrams, None of the messages was sent.

In a statement issued last night the government said that it took the responsibility for the action of the telegraphers.

MINERS MUST WORK

Full Force of United Workers May Compel Strikers to Return

Scanton, Pa., Sept. 11.—Word came yesterday from John L. Lewis acting president of the United Mine Workers of American, in session at Cleveland, that if the strike of 26,000 miners of the Lackawanna and Hudson Companies is not quickly ended he will send the full force of the organization here to convince the strikers of their error in violating agreements and the laws of the union.

The resolution of the Conciliation Board urging the strikers to return to work and permit their grievances to be adjusted through the proper channels, was respected by the Hudson Company employees.

General Superintendent Dorrance of the Hudson Company and officials of the coal department of the Lackawanna Company today reiterated their statements that only after the return of the men to work will their grievances be given consideration. John Dempsey, president of District No. 1, of the Mine Workers' Union, again sent to the strikers a request that the unauthorized strike be brought to an end.

The General Grievance Committee of both companies will meet here late today to take up the strike question.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Melvinder Mapple, who died seven years ago today, September 11, 1912.

My thoughts are always wandering
To the grave so far away,
Where my beloved mother is lying
In her peaceful and lonely grave.
I can never forget you dear mother
Whie in this world I stay.
God only knows my feeling
Since you passed away.
A happy home we once enjoyed
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a lonesomeness
This world can never fill.
Sleep on my darling mother
Oh how sweet to breath thy name,
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same,

BRITAIN'S PROPHECY

Shortly before the British fleet evacuated Boston, after the United States had been declared free and independent nation, they erected a pole upon which they placed the British flag. The pole had been greased to prevent any one from climbing it, and as the ships passed out of the harbor they fired salutes. Sailors in the meantime yelled back at our forefathers: "Never mind d—n you! We'll get you yet!"

It is interesting to read English literature about that time. The mother country assumed that the first presidential election would bring to an end the great American republic. The writers were confident the country would break up in anarchy.

It is significant to read of occurrences in Boston at the present day. This city was the cradle of Liberty, and one of the first overt acts committed against the British crown (throwing tea overboard from ships in the harbor) was committed there.

Many crimes have been committed in the name of Liberty since the people of Massachusetts precipitated the war against Great Britain. But the Bostonias, who assume that their city is the hub of the universe never dreamed that scenes akin to those now prevailing would ever be witnessed in their midst. Shops have been looted, people have been killed, laws set at defiance, and at this time hundreds of games of crap are being played upon Boston Commons. Is Britain's forecast of a century and a third ago to be realized?

THE WORLD SEEMS MAD

Nobody yet has been rash enough to publish a "Who's Who in Sanity." Reuben's remark to Rachel that "everyones mad but me and thee, and someties I think thee's a little queer," gains points every day. It was a comparatively sane world in which David declared that all men were liars. He admitted later that he said it in a haste, but were he here just now he might repeat it at leisure, only substituting "mad" for "liars."

As the Hartford Times says "sanity is at best, it seems, a relative thing. It is a changing condition. The sanity of the nations had a sad strain in the years from 1914 to 1919. That is over, and the reaction has begun. It products an abnormal conditions in the mind of the world. It is a condition akin to madness, and many unavoidable circumstances and more undesirable but seemingly unavoidable persons are ignorantly or deliberately making it worse.

Coming down to cases, we have evidence of this condition in the unrest of the world, as displayed in numerous ways. Practically everybody is uneasy; the philosopher grows rare. The wealthy at one end of the scale are protesting because their increment is broken into by taxes and demands and appeals and high expenses generally. The poor at the other are frantic because of the high and growing price they must pay for the merest subsistance, ignoring the fact that somehow even their names are less limited than they used to be. Between the great multitude is complaining, some of one thing, some of another—all of many things.

All this reacts upon the rest of us It is catching. Keeping one's composure on straight, amid the dip, is a rare accomplishment. The pessimist mutiplies, and the optimist tends to faintness and timidity. But the situation is far from hopeless. As this has been the worst year, so its aftermath is unprecedented. But cheer up. Even this shall pass away."

NEGRO RESENTMENT

Booker Washington's successor as head of the Tuskegee Institute, R. R. Moton, regards very seriously the recent race riots in various parts of the country. "I have never known the colored people to have more intense feeling towards the white people than at present," he remarks, "and I have never known a time when there was less reason." And he goes on to say that the South is just as anxious to be "absolutely fair and just to the negro" as the North, that it recognizes just as clearly his value as an economic factor, and that it is determined as never before to put down mob rule.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says "the natural deduction to be drawn from this statement is that the responsibility for these riots rests more upon the blacks than upon the whites. Yet perhaps it may be regarded as a question of immediate rather than ultimate responsibility. Moton's testimony as the attitude of his own race cannot be lightly brushed aside. His position at Tuskegee qualifies him peculiarly as a fair witness. The whole spirit of that institution is one of co-operation between the races. All his life Booker Washington endeavored to allay race prejudice.

"What seems to have happened is that large numbers of negroes have been brooding over past wrongs and working themselves into a frame of mind to avenge them, forgetting that they are past or passing, and that good relatons can never be established between the races unless the injured are ready to forgive and forget. Probably the main cause of the riots is to be sought in the social conditons which arise when blacks and whites live together as neighbors. There are deep-seated animosities peculiarly difficult to overcome in such circumstances. But until they are overcome there will be no lasting peace."

OLD-FASHIONED COMMUNISTS.

The new Communist Labor Party, that body which with perfect logic threw out of its ranks two members who had property of their own, has declared in its platform that there must be no more "parleying or compromise." The issue is perfectly simple. Either capitalists or workmen must have "full power." That golden middle course which Horace praised as safer is absolutely barred. The class which includes the great majority of people, which belongs neither to capital nor to labor in the restricted sense in which the word is used, like the flowers that bloom in the spring, tra, la! has nothing to do with the case.

Yet it is a curiously old-fashioned law, after all, which these reformers of society take. The party, we are further told, "has as its ultimate aim the overthrow of the present system of production, in which the working class is mercilessly exploited, and the creation of an industrial republic wherein the machinery of production shall be socialized so as to guarantee to the workers the full value of their toil." In these days, when wages mount by leaps and bounds, it is a little difficult to believe that workers do not get the full value of their toil. But let that pass How would the "socialization" of industry make available a larger fund for paying them?

This merciless exploitation of the workingman may have been one of the things to be destroyed years ago, before organized labor became able to dictate its own terms. For a brand new party to have no better phrase to fall back upon suggests that its economic views are those of an older, not a newer day. What the Communists apparently do not understand is that much of what they denounce as capitalism is merely thrift. After all, the money of this country is in the hands of the many, not the few.—(Philadelphia Inquirer.

FIEND'S VICTIM

Girl Found Unconscious Along a Road After Being Attacked

West Chester, Pa., Sept. 11.—Miss Mary Gunkle, 17 years old, daughter of William W. Gunkle, of Church street, Malvern, is in a serious condition from injuries and shock at her home, as the result of an attack upon her, and Norman Robinson, a Maryland negro, who had been working on Pennsylvania Railroad repairs near Malvern for some time, is in prison, where he is being held on orders of District Attorney Wade for a further hearing before Justice of the Peace him following a preliminary examination.

The girl went out upon a lonely road to look for a younger brother, who was late in arriving home after a visit to the central portion of the town, and was attacked, beaten and choked, marks of fingers being upon her throat when she was found unconscious a short time later.

Following news of the assault State troopers arrested five negroes, but all proved alibis except Robinson, who has been partly identified by the girl and is unable to explain his whereabouts at the time.

Man Victim of Liquid In Cellar Mistaken for Elderberry

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 11.—Adam J. Richter, of St. Clair, died yesterday from the effect of alkali poisoning, which he took in mistake for elderberry wine.

Richter was cleaning out his cellar when he came upon the wine and drank enough to kill him before he realized it was poison. Richter was an active business man at St Clair for years.

CONFESSES KILLING HARTH

Maud Moore Discusses Details of Matter Freely With Visitors to Her Cell

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 11.—Maud Moore, who shot and killed Leroy D. Harth, prominent real estate man and president of a motor car company, on the Kingston pike near Bear Den late Monday night, was located in a cave about two miles from the end of theSevier River Pike car line at 6.30 o'clock Tuesday evening and placed under arrest by city detectives. She confessed to the killing as soon as she was arrested.

When interviewed in her cell in the city jail last night, Miss Moore discussed the details of the killing freely and did not hesitate in saying that she had fired the shot which caused the death of Mr. Harth, but stated that he had attempted to attack her and it was either his life or her honor.

WILSON PRESENTS ISSUE

Peace Can be Maintained Only by Concert of League of Nations

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 11.—President Wilson told a Bismarck audience yesterday that the issue involved in his speech making tour for the treaty was "a question of war or peace."

There was only one way in which peace could be maintained, he said, and that was by such a concert of nations as was proposed in the League of Nations.

Completing the first week of his tour, the President spoke in the Bismarck auditorium. It was the smallest hall in which he had yet spoken, seating about 1500. It was filled.

NO REST—NO PEACE

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. Alexandria people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.

Mrs. Chas. Cook, 410 Queen St., Alexandria, says: "After an attack of the "flu" my kidneys were left in bad shape. My back pained me so I was in misery all the time. It seemed as though a dagger were being thrust into my kidneys. I could get no rest at night. Mornings I would be so tired and worn out I would feel like giving up. A friend saw what condition I was in and told me what a wonderful remedy Doan's Kidney Pills are. I sent to Creighton's Drug Store for some. Doan's fixed me up all right in a short time. The pains all left me and before long I was entirely cured. It was Doan's Kidney Pils and nothing else that did it."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pill's—the same that Mrs. Cook had. Foster-Miburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"One Sunday morning a particularly venturesome redskin, having discovered that the sentinel on duty had fallen asleep, crept up within bow shot of the meeting house and discharged a flaming arrow through an open window. The careless sentry was placed in the stocks for 5 hours and fined 50 pounds of tobacco."

—From story by P. A. Bruce.

The fragrance of golden Virginia-Carolina is in every Piedmont

Sun-ripened, mellow Virginia-Carolina tobacco—that's what gives that full flavor to Piedmont cigarettes.

When you smoke a cigarette made of Virginia-Carolina mixed with other tobaccos, you are missing some of Virginia-Carolina's fragrance and flavor.

But when you smoke Piedmonts, you are getting all of it with every puff because Piedmonts are made entirely of Virginia-Carolina tobacco.

The Virginia-Carolina Cigarette

Piedmont

NOTE—In England, where Virginia-Carolina tobacco has the preference, a smoker pays as much for it as for the best Turkish tobacco. Because over there both kinds of tobacco pay the same Import duty. But in this country Virginia-Carolina tobacco costs you less than Turkish tobacco because it is grown in this country, and, unlike foreign-grown tobaccos, pays no Import duty.

DECISION SUSTAINED

Important Ruling in Workmen's Compensation Award

Richmond, Sept. 11.—In an opinion handed down Tuesday by Judge Beverley T. Crump, of the Law and Equity Court of the city of Richmond the Industrial Commission of Virginia is sustained on every point in the first case appealed by defendant employers from the decision of the commission.

The case in question was that of Phaup and Tinsley against Isaac Bray, complained that he was injured at Seven Pines while sawing wood in the employ of Phaup and Tinsley, and claiming that the injury had arisen out of and in the course of such employment. The injury alleged was the loss of a part of the index finger and the laceration of the thumb of his right hand.

Phaup and Tinsley, the defendants, claimed that they did not come with in the provisions of the workmen's compensation act, and that they were merchants and not contractors.

The defense was also made that Bray was employed by a third party at the time of his alleged injury which said third party was an independent contractor, and that the alleged injury was intentionally self-inflicted.

After hearing all the evidence submited, the State Industrial Commission decided that the claimant, Isaac Bray, was entitled to recover from the defendants, Phaup and Tinsley, compensation for the loss of the index finger of the right hand, and he was awarded the amount of $10 per week for a period of thirty-five weeks. The case was appealed within thirty days by Phaup and Tinsley.

This being, as it were, a test case under the operation of the workmen's compensation act, the opinion of Judge Crump is regarded as being peculiarly significant to the 8,000 employees of the State of Virginia.

BURNED AT THE STAKE

Body of Alleged Slayer of Georgia Woman Riddled With Bullets

Athens, Ga., Sept. 11.—Obe Cox, negro, the alleged murderer of the wife of an Oglethorpe county farmer Monday last, was captured by the posse yesterday.

He was taken to the scene of the crime, his body riddled with bullets and burned at the stake. Several thousand people witnessed the scene.

MERCIER IN BALTIMORE

Thousands Join Tumultuous Welcome to Heroic Belgian Cardinal

Thousands turned out to greet the gallant Belgian churchman, making the reception the greatest any visitor to the city ever has received. Cardinal Gibbons and Governor Harrington were among those to welcome the prelate.

Cardinal Mercier came to Baltimore yesterday afternoon after watching the First Division parade in New York.

Thousands were in the processional from the station to the Archiepiscopal residence of Cardinal Gibbons. The parade was was led by a company of soldiers from Camp Meade and music was furnished by a camp band.

"La Brabancone," Belgium's national anthem, was sung by the crowds which lined the streets through which the cardinal passed.

TEN PERSONS KILLED

Troops Use Machine Guns in Fighting in Silesia

Berlin, Sept. 11.—Ten persons were killed and eleven wouded during food riots in Glogau, Silesia, Tuesday.

Troops used machine guns and hand grenades against the troops.

The trouble started when threatening crowds gathered before the shops and protested against the dearness of food. The situation became critical and troops were called out.

The crowd attacked the soldiers and one soldier was shot. Thereupon the order to fie was given and the streets were cleared by the use of machine guns and hand grenades.

LABOR'S ATTITUDE

With Wages Doubled and Production Cut in Half Serious Conditions Are Faced

"Important plans for new construction, proposed by corporations and other large interests, and necessary for the country's increased industrial production. are being postponed because the men who are putting up the money say they have come to the limit of their endurance in being bullied by labor," said a Baltimore contractor this week.

The statement comes with the more force from this source as the contractor in question is recognized as having no prejudice against union labor as such, his principal interest being in getting an honest day's work done.

"Several corporation officials have told me," he continued, "that they are tired of being domineered by labor, and that rather than continuously yield to its agressions, they are going to defer, if not give up, the building projects they have in mind."

Asked to give his opinion on what labor, in the structural field, is giving in return for the increased wages received, he said:

"A dollar paid to a bricklayer, carpenter, painter or member of the other trades associated in construction does just about what 25 cents did at the beginning of the war. Generally speaking, wages have doubled and production is only half as great.

He touched on the matter of bricklaying, which has recently aroused so much discussion. "We used to get 1400 brick laid per man a day on a rough brick wall; 600 is about the number now," he said. "And so much time is wasted. You can count about an hour a day lost in getting ready for work and getting ready to quit work. As to getting paid, the men no longer condescend to line up at a window; their money is brought to them on the scaffold.

"The whole attitude of labor, so far as I have been able to observe is one of defiance. The men show no interest in their job. They seem to say: 'We are willing to do just so much, and we dare you to try to make us do more.' Not what they can produce but what they can extort appears their chief concern.

"They are confident that they have capital on the run; that they have only to strike and it will be granted unto them; that they have Congress in their pockets, and that they had better get now while the getting is good. Radical leaders are in the ascendant—Baltimore News.

CYCLONE SWEEPS HAVANA

Five Known Dead and Most of The City Flooded.

Havana, Sept. 11.—Five persons are known to be dead and several others are missing as a result of the cyclone which swept over the city Tuesday night, flooding the greater part of the city with huge waves from the Gulf, which swept over the sea wall. The waters receded yesterday, leaving the streets strewn with fallen trees and debris.

The electric lighting and telephone systems are badly crippled, but it is impossible as yet to estimate the damage, which is very heavy.

TO PRESS LABOR TRUCE

Repudiated Committee Will Appeal to Rank and File of Unions

New York, Sept. 11—John F. Pierce and Isadore Epstein, who were appointed by James P. Holland, president of the State Federation of Labor, to devise ways and means of reducing the high cost of living, and whose recommendation for a suspension of strikes for six months was repudiated by Mr. Holland, announced in a letter to Mr. Holland that they will continue to work for their plan among the rank and file of labor, and would demand "changes in the fundamental laws of the Federation which will deprive false leaders of power to cause untold misery." The letter to Mr. Holland said, in part:

"Our conscience pleads with us to go on with the work we have begun, and we will do so as members of the rank and file of organized labor, making appeal to our brothers of the rank and file.

"Our report of September 1 was based on a study of existing economic conditions. We could see no other way out of the difficulties that beset the country than by the declaration of a truce to all industrial wefare, and uniting with the President of the United States to lower the cost of living and restore the country to a sound business basis.

"We hope to see the day very soon when no trade or industry will be allowed to order a strike without permission of the executive council. It is a power too great to be left in the hands of men who sometimes exercise it for reasons not altogether for the benefit of the rank and file, whose will they are supposed to, but often do not, represent.

"There should be a check placed upon such men. There should be a higher power within the ranks of organized labor clothed with authority to make a final decision before a strike may be ordered.

"We realize that it is no puny battle which we have undertaken but we are ready for whatever may come."

OFFICE OF

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS to the Constitution of Virginia, agreed to at session of General Assembly 1918, and published in pursuance of section 196 of the Constitution and act approved February 3, 1908.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 32 of article 2 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia, be, and the same is hereby, proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section thirty-two, which is in the following words:

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public, and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

And insert in lieu thereof the following::

Sec. 32. Every person qualified to vote shall be eligible to any office of the State, or of any county, city, town or other subdivision of the State, wherein he resides, except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, and except that this provision as to residence shall not apply to any office elective by the people where the law provides otherwise; and except further, that the requirements of this section as to residence and voting qualifications shall not apply in the appointment of persons to all positions under a municipal government requiring special technical or professional training and experience. Men and women eighteen years of age shall be eligible to the office of notary public and qualified to execute the bonds required of them in that capacity.

Resolved by the senate, the house of delegates concurring, (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed, and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen, of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-eight, which is in the following words:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 138. The general assembly may, in its discretion, provide for the compulsory education of children of school age.

A RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 117 of article 8 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Resolved by the senate and the house of delegates (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of senators and members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity to the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and seventeen, which is in the words and figures following, to-wit:

Section 117. General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house; and except also in the case of cities having more than fifty thousand inhabitants, as hereinafter provided. But each of the cities and towns of the State having at the time of the adoption of this amendment a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly; provided, that every such charter is hereby amended so as to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

Notwithstanding, however, anything in this article contained the general assembly may, by general law or by special act (passed as prescribed in article four of this Constitution), depart in any respect (except as otherwise in this section expressly provided) from the form of organization and government prescribed by this article for cities and towns, and may provide, from time to time, for the various cities and towns of the Commonwealth such form or forms of municipal government as the general assembly may deem best; but no form or forms of government authorized by the second paragraph of this section shall become operative except as to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of its qualified electors at an election to be held as may be prescribed therefor by law. All the limitations on the powers of the councils of cities and towns imposed by this article shall apply in like manner to the principal legislative authority under any form of government which may be authorized hereunder. The term "council" as used in sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-seven of this Constitution shall be construed to include the body which, under any form of municipal government, shall be vested with the principal legislative authority of such municipality.

The general assembly, for the purpose of this article, may classify cities according to their population, but the maximum population prescribed for any class shall exceed the minimum population for the same class by at least ten thousand. The general assembly at the request, made in manner which may be prescribed by law, of any city having a population of over fifty thousand inhabitants, may grant a special form of government for such city.

Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurer and city sergeants.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Sec. 117. (a) General laws for the organization and government of cities and towns shall be enacted by the general assembly, and no special act shall be passed in relation thereto, except in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution, and then only by a recorded vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house. But each of the cities and towns of the State, having at the time of the adoption of this Constitution a municipal charter may retain the same, except so far as it shall be repealed or amended by the general assembly: provided, that every such charter is hereby amended to conform to all the provisions, restrictions, limitations and powers set forth in this article, or otherwise provided in this Constitution.

(b) The general assembly may, by general law or by special act, (passed in the manner provided in article four of this Constitution) provide for the organization and government of cities and towns without regard to, and unaffected by, any of the provisions of this article, except those of sections one hundred and twenty-four, one hundred and twenty-five, (except so far as the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-five recognize the office of mayor and the power of veto) one hundred and twenty-six one hundred and twenty-seven and one hundred and twenty-eight of this article and except those mentioned in sub-section (c) of this section. The term "Council" as used in any of said sections shall include the body exercising legislative authority for the city or town, and all ordinances enacted and resolutions adopted by such body shall have the same force and effect for all purposes, as if enacted or adopted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and twenty-three of this article. But such organization and government shall apply only to such cities or towns as may thereafter adopt the same by a majority vote of those qualified voters of any such city or town voting in an election to be held for the purpose, as may be provided by law.

(c) The general assembly, at the request of any city or town made in manner provided by law, may grant to it any special form of organization and government authorized by sub-section (b) of this section, and subject to all of the provisions of that sub-section, except that it shall not be necessary for such city or town to thereafter adopt the same.

(d) Any laws or charters enacted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be subject to the provisions of this Constitution relating expressly to judges and clerks of courts, attorneys for the Commonwealth, commissioners of revenue, city treasurers and city sergeants.

(e) Any form of organization and government authorized by any provision of this section which may have been adopted heretofore by any city or town pursuant to any act of the general assembly enacted before such provision became effective, and which is now in operation, is hereby declared legal and valid ab initio, and shall have the same force and effect as if it had been authorized by this Constitution at the time of its adoption.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (the majority of the members elected to each house agreeing thereto), That the following amendment to section one hundred and thirty-three, article nine of the Constitution of Virginia, be and is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly at the first regular session held after the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-three of article nine, which is in the following words:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 133. Each magisterial district shall constitute a separate school district, unless otherwise provided by law. In each school district there shall be not more than three trustees selected, in the manner and for the term of office prescribed by law.

Men and women may serve as school trustees in said districts, and in cities and in towns forming separate school districts.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing) That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and eighty-four, which is in the following words:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 184. No debt shall be contracted by the State except to construct, or reconstruct, public roads, to meet casual deficits in the revenue, to redeem a previous liability of the State, to suppress insurrection, repel invasion, or defend the State in time of war. No scrip, certificate, or other evidence of State indebtedness, shall be issued except for the transfer or redemption of stock previously issued, or for such debts as are expressly authorized in this Constitution.

A RESOLUTION proposing an amendment to section 136 of article 9 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment and certifying the same to the next session of the general assembly.

Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to each house agreeing), That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates, for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-six, of article fifteen of the said Constitution, namely:

Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia section one hundred and thirty-six, which is in the following words:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate five mills on the dollar in any one year, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, and be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of five mills, to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of amendments proposed to the Constitution and agreed to by the General Assembly of Virginia, session 1918, and the same is published in pursuance of section of the Constitution and act of the General Assembly, approved February 1902.

ELECTON NOTICE

At a Circuit Court of the City of Alexandria, continued and held at the Court house of said city on Wednesday, July 9th, 1919. Present. Hon. Samuel G. Brent, Judge.

In the matter of the petition of electors for a change in the form of government for the city of Alexandria, Virginia, under the act of the General Assembly, approved March 20, 1916.

And this day again came the petitioners and again presented their petitions prepared and executed in due form of law, of electors of the City of Alexandria, equal in number to at least ten per cent. of those qualified to vote at the last preceding general election, at which a mayor or council was elected, and specifying in said petitions the particular form of government permitted under an act of the General Assembly approved March 20, 1916, as amended, and which form they wish to adopt, including the number of councilmen, namely five, to be elected at large and to serve without compensation and asking that an election be held, as provided in said act; and said petition being in all respects in conformity with the provisions and requirements of said act.

It is therefore ordered that E. E Downham, Richard E. Sweeney, and T. A. Moore, or their successors in office comprising the Electoral board of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, be, and they are hereby directed to take such steps and prepare such means as may be necessary to submit to the qualified voters of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, at an election which said electoral board is hereby directed to hold on the 23rd day of September, 1919, for determination of the question of whether said proposed change in the form of government of the City of Alexandria, shall be adopted or not.

Said election shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by law for the conduct of regular election, and by the regular election officers of said city.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, for at least thirty days prior to said election and said electoral board is further directed to give all due publicity to said election, that under the law they are required to give of regular elections.

And the Clerk of this Court is directed to transmit a copy of this order to each member of the electoral board.

TREATY BEFORE SENATE

Pact Submitted by Lodge With 4 Reservations, 45 Amendments

The treaty of peace with Germany was reported to the Senate yesterday by Senator Lodge, chairman of the Foreign Rglations Committee, with four reservations and forty-five amendments which the committee asks the Senate to adopt.

The reservations cover the right of America to withdraw at will from the league of nations, the right of Congress to exercise free action under Article X., the refusal to permit domestic questions to be settled by the league, and the declaration that the Monroe doctrine is purely an American question and not subject to any interpretation of determination by foreign powers.

The amendments include the proposal to give the United States equal representation with the British Empire in the league, the return of Shantung to China instead of to Japan, and the series of amendments by Senator Fall to take the United States out of participation in the various commissions established by the treaty.

REIGN OF TERROR IN UFA

Many Priests Executed by Bolsheviki Some in Churches

A reign of terror has been started in the city and government of Ufa, according to the Intelligence Office of the General Staff of the Siberian Army. Many priests have been executed, some of them in their churches during service. Bolsheviki are also persecuting the Musulman priests.

CARRIES OFF GIRL

Bag Thrown Over Head Within 50 Feet of Policeman—Identity Unknown

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 11.—A young girl was carried away in daylight Tuesday at North Broad and Allen streets by a man who drove to the curb in an automobile, jumped out, threw a bag over the girl's head, dragged her into the car and sped away.

The incident occurred within 50 feet of Patrolman Charles Farley, who commandeered another machine and gave chase. The abductor's automobile was a fast touring car, however, and was soon out of sight. The police telephoned to Princeton, Lawrenceville and other surrounding towns, but the fugitive was not intercepted.

Up to a late hour the police had received no report of any missing girl and have no clue to the identity of her victim. The automobile bore no license tag.

STEEL STRIKE IS CALLED

Nationwide Fight Against Corporation Voted by 24 Union Heads Here

Washington, Sept. 11.—A strike against the United States Steel Corporation, effective September 22, was called late yesterday by presidents of twenty-four unions involved in the steel industry.

This decision was made by unanimous vote late yesterday, when it became clear, the union statement said, that the last hope of success in securing a conference with Judge Gary had been removed by the failure of the President's efforts to induce the Steel Corporation to meet the representatives of the unions.

Leaders said President Wilson's reply to an urgent as well as final telegram sent him last night was unsatisfactory and that no alternative was left them but to comply with the demands of the workers and to call the strike.

There is every indication that the steel strike will be the largest and most far-reaching since that of the United Mine Workers during the Roosevelt administration, unless it is called off.

Leaders claim upwards of 260,000 workers will go out. They contradict Judge Gary's quoted statement that only 10 per cent of the steel workers belong to unions connected with the American Federation of Labor.

PERSHING LEADS PARADE

Rides at Head of Famous First Over Five Miles of Flower-Strewn Streets

New York, Sept. 11.—Over a five-mile flower strewn pathway, General Pershing led his famous First Division down Fifth avenue yesterday to the wild plaudits of 2,000,000 proud countrymen. It was the last great review of the world war for New York and it was a fitting climax to a long series of military spectacles.

The commander of America's armies shared honors with battle-scarred vetearns who won undying fame on the fields of France. For all of them it was one of life's most memorable days. As he rode down the avenue, the stern lines of the leader's face relaxed in the now famous Pershing smile, and when he dismounted in Washington Square at the end of the march, surrounded by his staff, he exclaimed:

"It was the most enthusiastic and patriotic outburst I ever have seen."

Behind Pershing rode a score of major generals and brigadiers and back of them strode the Commander's Guard of Honor, the world-famed composite regiment of doughboys, the flower of six divisions. Stalwart young giants, magnificent Americans, they scored in the nations' metropolis a triumph far dearer to their hearts than the laurels they won in the victoy reviews of Paris and London. Nearly all the men wore wound chevrons.

Why People Buy Rat-Snap in Preference to Rat Poison.

(1) RAT-SNAP absolutely kills rats and mice. (2) What it doesn't kill it scares away. (3) Rats killed with RAT-SNAP leave no smell, they dry up inside. (4) Made in cakes, no mixing with other food. (5) Cats or dogs won't touch it. Three sizes, 25c 50c, $1.00, old and guaranteed by R. E. Knight and Son, Alexandria; Mankin's Store, Falls Church.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
